

Questions are taken from a quiz created by Hall Davidson. Contributors: Marybeth.blessing and Cresner
The quiz may be reproduced with attribution for educational purposes.

---

Description: This quiz is to test your understanding of fair use and copyright.

QUESTION 1

On her home VCR a history teacher taped the original ABC news report of Nixon leaving the White House after resigning. She uses the entire news program every year in her classroom. This is fair use.

True or False

QUESTION 2

The owner of the local Blockbuster Video store supports the school by donating one videotape rental-free to the school every Friday. The video is shown in the multi-purpose room to reward students with perfect attendance that week. It does improve attendance. This falls under "fair use."

True or False

QUESTION 3

A teacher rents "Gone with the Wind" to show the burning of Atlanta scene to her class while studying the Civil War. This is fair use.

True or False

QUESTION 4

What types of work are copyrighted? Check all that apply.

- A. Dramatic
- B. Musical
- C. Graphical
- D. Speeches
- E. Literary

QUESTION 5

When does someone get copyright protection?

- A. When the author gets paid.
- B. As soon as the work is created.
- C. When it is published with a © symbol.
- D. When it is registered for copyright.

QUESTION 6

How long in the U.S. does copyright last?

- A. A.Forever, as long as someone holds the copyright
- B. 70 years after it is created
- C. A person's life plus 70 years after death
- D. It depends on the type of registration that was bought

QUESTION 7

What happens to the work after the copyright time has passed?

- A. It can be bought
- B. There is no time-limit on copyright
- C. The work must be destroyed
- D. It goes into the public domain

QUESTION 8

Something must have the © sign to be copyrighted.

True or False

QUESTION 9

What is fair use?

- A. Paying the creator a fair price for the work.
- B. Using paid-for commercial products once and not sharing them.
- C. Limited copying or distribution of published works without the author's permission.
- D. Freeware that you obtain from the Internet.

QUESTION 10

What are the four factors that determine if the use of copyrighted material falls under fair use?

- A. Purpose, Content, Amount, and Market Effect
- B. Purpose, Amount, Environment, and Market Effect
- C. Substantiality, Use, Nature, and Market Effect
- D. Purpose, Nature, Amount, and Market Effect

QUESTION 11

Non-profit and educational uses will generally weigh in favor of fair use as opposed to:

- A. News Reporting
- B. Scientific Use
- C. Commercial Use
- D. Respective Uses

QUESTION 12

A student is doing a multimedia report and wants to use a small portion of of Kennedy's "We Shall Go to the Moon" speech. He presents the report to his class and then posts it on the school's local area network. This is fair use.

True or False

QUESTION 13

A student is writing a report for science class and uses copyright images downloaded from the Internet and cited correctly. He submits his project to a competition that recognizes classroom work for students and wins a prize for the school. This is covered under fair use.

True or False

QUESTION 14

A student brings a CD to school and lends it to a friend to put in his Keynote Presentation. This is fair use.

True or False

QUESTION 15

A teacher produces a student video that they sell at the end of the year to buy equipment for the school. They use well-known popular music clips. The money all goes to the school and the songs are fully listed in the credits. This is covered under fair use.

True or False